

The Stake In The Heart Report

Gasping for my final breath, I lay clinging onto my last pennies...

“How the Gurus left me for dead in a friend's dusty basement, and how I dug my way out without their help”

Hey guys thanks for downloading this free report.

I'd like to get straight to the point and...

Give you a big

Red Warning!

If you are anything like me, you probably have tons of eBooks and systems getting old and rank on your hard drive that promise to make you an online superstar overnight.

Please don't let this brief report join your cluster of useless junk that gathers dust in the dark corners of your piled up hard disk.

This is why:

The information contained within this document earns me over $100k a month. Every month. I know that I am giving away this report for free, but don't make the mistake of thinking that this report is worthless because it's free. Nowadays too many people like yourself have been infected with the common misconception that anything FREE = WASTE OF TIME.

I plead you to take a few minutes of your precious time and read this report to the very last line of the last page. Forget about everything else for the time being like hanging around on the internet marketing forums and checking your emails or wasting time on facebook, and really focus your mind for the next few minutes on this great opportunity.

Those of you guys who take the time out to read this document will view the internet marketing world in a whole new light.

I gotta be straight up and tell you guys that I am not a professional writer or an expert in creating eBooks. I created this report in a frenzy by frantically giving my whole self and holding nothing back revealing everything, and I mean everything that I have learnt on my online journey, and boy oh boy has it been a tough ride.

Please pardon my occasional bad grammar and spelling mistakes and just focus on the content being revealed and fasten your seat belts as you are in for a shocking discovery and a wild ride.

You are about to discover why making money online now is now virtually impossible as we are preyed upon by the Guru Vampires who suck us dry, watch our every move, know our every thought and emotion and control us like big brother.

I will also reveal my little known secret that I have been using to create a mega fortune online.

See you at the end of the tunnel

Making Money Online Is Finished

Right at this moment of time the whole of the online internet marketing community is at a point of sheer frustration.

In every industry and niche, there is always a pioneer. A genius spark and idea, and then a few select Gurus make a killing....

Then starts the dramatic trickling of the heavily watered down methods to the general public.

When the gurus first discovered adsense or when stompernet pioneered seo domination, there was a spark of innovation, and all these guys got rich.

So did the the first few insiders who were lucky enough to get the inside information and quick enough to jump onto the wagon and start their own campaigns.

But today there are hundreds of internet gurus and thousands of 'make money online' products.

Each one claims to be the Holy Grail. The last thing you will ever have to buy to make it big online. The so called magic formula to success.

A particular concept proves itself to work and then the hinges come flying off the doors as an immense flood of 'guru experts' come rushing in to flood the market with their own version.

I mean just go into click bank and take a look at the hundreds and hundreds of products that teach you how to make money online, all claiming to take you to sky high limits with their cut throat marketing and snazzy sales letters.

The whole 'make money online' community is following the same pattern. In the early days most internet marketers started out by selling legitimate services and products to customers.

However, things have drastically changed. Now most marketers sell 'get rich quick 'crap to tired worn out customers who always fall prey to the sneaky marketing tactics used by these Elite Guru Vampires.

THEY FEED OFF YOUR BLOOD AND YOUR MONEY, THAT'S WHAT KEEPS THEM ALIVE!

Now for the really bad news... After a certain niche or an online market reaches its point of saturation, we then go back to the primitive system of survival of the fittest and only the very strong survive, while everybody else is left dead in the swamps or wasting hours and months trying out the methods for little or no results.

This is a very serious matter. A few short years ago with the advent of Google and online marketing, it was piss easy to make money on the internet.

Making money online was the hottest new thing, and every internet savvy entrepreneur with a pulse started investigating all the brand new money making opportunities that were now seemingly possible due to more and more people using the net regularly.

With the boom of Google adwords and adsense there opened a new window for hundreds of internet marketing enthusiasts as it was virtually competition free and very easy to implement.

With all these new income opportunities online, there came a swarm of new net marketers, which included myself, and at this present day there is a roaring storm of internet marketing gurus and promoters trying to cash in on all the different make money trends and crazes.

You probably know this already.

But what you may have failed to realise is that:

Making Money Online Is Now Finished!

I haven't seen a single Guru admit this fact yet. How could they as this would cut off their vital lifeline of supplying and marketing constant junk to you guys and make them disintegrate into thin air like a vampire in sunlight.

However, if you talk to many of these so called experts privately, you will discover that many of them are moving their eggs out of the traditional online income markets.

They know that Making Money Online the standard way is finished.

Don't take this in the wrong way. I am not calling all the online marketing gurus liars.

Question: Did some of the gurus really make the money they have claimed online?

Answer: Yes, Absolutely.

Question: Is it possible that you could still make money online?

Answer: Yes

Question: Is it relatively simple to make money online if you know what you are doing?

Answer: Yes

Question: Will you ever make a significant amount of money online so you can quit your day job and live the life of luxury?

Answer: No! Not very likely with the present state of online marketing.

But it wasn't always like this. There was actually a time when you could make a serious income easily from the internet. So what happened?

Who Destroyed Internet Marketing

Over the last years the endless gurus and their never ending supply of junk products have literally polluted the money making opportunities online.

You see it is now virtually impossible for the average guy to make good money on the net due to the fact that as soon as a new concept gets discovered, the actual honest Gurus on top of the food chain who discover the systems get very rich, and so do all the people close to them and those who have close connections to the inner circles and are quick enough to get in before the doors shut.

After this point what happens is that these people establish themselves as the major players in the market and are virtually unshakable. Then what happens is either the market reaches its saturation point or the methods are no longer effective anymore and at this point information starts to leak further down the food chain.

This is the realm of the Guru Vampires and where they live!

They are quick to jump on the wagon of newly released information that has worked for some people and is no longer effective, and their skill is to rehash these methods water them down and mass release them to the general public with their evil and subliminally brainwashing marketing techniques.

It's at this stage that people like you are infected with a bombardment of countless emails from every Guru Vampire out there (You see they work in packs)

This is how they maintain their hidden agenda.

You fall prey to their instant buzz and hypnotising sales letters and it seems every one in every forum is raving about their new product.

They now have you right where they want you. You are open for them to enter and take your soul.

You already have a hard drive stuffed to the peak of countless eBooks and products none of which have delivered what they say, and none of which you have used to take you into the world of financial freedom like you initially thought it would.

But still you start to feel a deadly urge. Something crazy happens, you start to feel frenzy come over you that you need this new product, even though you don't really have the money to waste, but you suddenly feel like if you don't get this your life will be incomplete.

This is the Elite Vampire Gurus controlling your mind and emotions, what they are best at.

You fight with yourself at try to hold yourself back, but it's as if something has possessed your body and is pushing you to take out your credit card, or enter your paypal details.

You look over the sales letter again and again and then the FEAR starts to kick in.

This is the Guru Vampire honing their magickal power right over you.

You start to feel that if you don't buy this product now, you will miss out, that your life will be incomplete and you will miss the once in a lifetime opportunity of changing your destiny, even though you have probably felt this with many of the other products you have bought that failed to deliver, you start to feel this feeling again and its fresher and stronger than ever.

Right at this point the Vampire King casts his final spell and you can't hold back any longer and buy the product.

The ritual is now over. The sacrifice is complete. You have once again sold your soul.

What did not realise is that what you have just bought has also been purchased by thousands of other victims who all fell prey to the Vampire Gurus magick spell.

Not only are the methods probably no longer valid and useful as they have long been juiced out by the guys on top of the food chain, but you and a kazillion other people have just purchased the product and the market is now set for overkill.

Now at this stage one of two things happen either you read the eBook, and then take no action because

- A) you are completely worn out from the vampires sucking your life force or it just requires too much time effort or money to implement or

B) You start getting stuck right in and put hours and hours of endless work following every instruction laid out by the blood suckers in the guide only to find that at the end of it you make nothing or not even enough to pay for half of what you just bought.

This is reality.

How many times has this happened to you?

This is the hidden conspiracy of the internet marketing world that is controlled by the Elite Illuminati Guru Vampires who control everything from what products are launched to what emails arrive into your inbox, and they know every thought in your mind and all of your emotional triggers.

Look at the markets online and you will see clear evidence of this filthy internet conspiracy.

Take adwords or adsense as a prime example of this.

When goggle first released these two platforms, the top of the chain gurus and all the people associated with them made an absolute killing silently while everyone else carried on with their day jobs.

These guys literally made millions and millions of dollars and flooded their bank accounts with enough money to retire forever.

Slowly the markets started to become saturated and fierce competition started to kick in.

Now the inevitable happened, secret hidden information started to leak out and land in the laps of the Vampire Gurus who are constantly waiting for this to happen.

Before you knew it there were hundreds of so called adwords and adsense experts who have instantly flooded the market with thousands of miracle make money products that were released on a mass scale to the general public.

Now in the current situation, a click on adwords that would have previously cost you 10 cents costs 10 bucks.

Your adsense accounts start getting banned because you are using systems that Google doesn't like and punishes you for using the methods prescribed by the gurus.

Everybody who falls prey to the blood suckers loses out, all while the cold blooded vampires laugh all the way to the bank, and prepare to do it all over again.

As soon as you have recouped your energy and life force, they are there watching and getting ready to strike again.

This is the sacrifice without which these vampires can't survive.

The only way to stop them is to drive a stake right through their cold dark hearts!

The Crack Down

Even now this very moment there are still thousands of gurus screaming out and hammering people with their marketing and trying to subliminally brain wash them into believing that you can still make big cash using tired worn out internet marketing techniques.

I'm the quiet one trying to explain that all of these methods are now dead.

So why should you even listen to me?

Simply put, I am the guy that you never see on stage. I am the person sitting quietly in the back corner of the room making a 6 and 7 figure passive income online.

I treat my online businesses, like a real business and take it very seriously just as I did in my prior careers as a trader and a manager for a world wide multi million dollar company.

I have spent the last few better years of my life seeking out and analysing how money is made, then seeing if it fits in with my ethos before putting it into action.

I Have Been To Hell And Back

I have made and lost what some would consider a huge fortune in a drastic turn of events. I had a very successful job where I was earning the top end of five figures a month and had all the luxuries that people can only dream off. I had a beautiful house and had all the fancy toys that money could buy.

I then hit rock bottom when a drastic episode made me lose my job and my house get repossessed due to me not keeping up with the payments. A sudden change of events in my company left all my years of hard work flushed down the drain.

I went from living the high life to begging my friend to allow me to sleep in his shabby cold and dusty basement.

From eating out in all the posh restaurants and making over a half a million dollars a year, I now had to resort to cornflakes and milk for breakfast lunch and dinner.

It's Sad when You shop For Food Based on How Long It Will Last, And How You Can Maximise The Amount Of Servings You Get From It

At this point I started looking into making money online and was sucked dry by all the guru vampires. I spent almost every last penny of my savings on all the latest eBooks and money making dreams these guys sell, and months and months of hard work and effort implementing their shit to no avail.

I was on my last straw, my last breath before a miracle happened.

I have had the immense good fortune of bouncing back and earning more money than I did before and making it grow 10 fold.

Today I am earning a ridiculous amount of cash, and thanks to my severe experiences in the past, I don't take it for granted and have become a really humble person. I don't act like an arrogant big shot because I make more money in a month then most people can make in their life.

The thing that makes me different and the actual reason why you should pay attention to anything I have to say is that I have consistently proven the ability to make 6 and even 7 figure monthly incomes and have taught many others to do the same.

I don't believe in making money all for myself while my friends, family and others are stuck in their same way of life. That's no fun. I can't play by myself now can I?

After falling in love with the easiest ways to make big money online, I went as far as to develop an underground private seminar where I taught 10 people how to duplicate my success for next to nothing ($10,000, which considering their results, was just a pinch...).

Yes I Want To Make Money, But It Has To Be Made My Way

The final thing you should know about me is my philosophy on business and making money online. As I soared to the high peaks of success, I very slowly developed a clear definition of effortless income generation.

Back in the day just making the highest number in my bank account at the end of the month was the most important thing to me. I paid very little attention on the amount of work and effort it took to make the money and only focused on the end amount. I would sit and spend almost 20 hours a day working on earning my fortunes, 7 days a week just to hit my numbers.

I was soon to realise that this sucked big time!

I started to look at things in much more detail, and analysing the whole process of making money and the time I would spend in achieving my desired income. Lifestyle now became as important to me as income figures.

I went back to the drawing board and developed a specific list of requirements for evaluating any income opportunity, and took my time in finding and developing it.

The Cold Fact Sheet Before I Start In any Online Business

Before I decided to fund any more online ventures and invest my last pennies into any business opportunity, I agreed that it must fit into cold and intense criteria that I laid out:

- 1) It has to produce 6 figures + a month or it would not be worth my while to spend time on
- 2) The income generation must be passive and have the ability to be placed on auto pilot which did not require huge daily action to maintain
- 3) It must be mobile to the extent that I could work from the middle of the jungles if I wanted to
- 4) It cannot depend on the actions of any third parties such as mlm etc
- 5) I must be able to count on the money coming in day in day out, year after a year. It has to have sustaining power and not get saturated no matter how many people are doing it

The Recovery

Now the story gets good. I was reduced to my last pennies left dying in the cold dark basement in my friend's house while the Guru Vampires were sucking my final breaths away from me.

I had nothing to invest and had lost all hope in internet marketing and making money online.

Perhaps I was about to discover how to make a killing online without ever worrying about saturation and being preyed upon by the blood suckers with their endless products.

Now I Make Over $100K A Month. Every Month. I Could Make More Easily, But I'm Lazy!

I don't do anything dramatically different or have a unique magic formula. However I have stumbled across a gold mine that's the answer to every desperate online entrepreneur.

I'll reveal exactly how I stumbled upon this incredibly simple system to make a killing online in a moment, but first let me show you some proof to back up the pudding:

An Average Month:

Totals	Quantity: 1011	Amount: $177,296.85
--------	----------------	----------------------

Another Month

Totals	Quantity: 1121	Amount: $189,777.00
--------	----------------	----------------------

An average Day...

Totals	Quantity: 40	Amount: $6,777.75
--------	--------------	--------------------

Are You Ready For Life After Death

You might be ready for the 4 tier annihilation method if you fall into one or more of the categories listed below:

- If you have ever purchased and failed to make money or made little money from an eBook or product online, you might be ready for the 4 tier annihilation method
- If you have a website that earns you little to no money while you still pay your hosting fees every month, you might be ready for the 4 tier annihilation method
- If you log into your paypal account often during the day, you might be ready for the 4 tier annihilation method
- If your hard disk contains, eBooks, videos, audios or software that you have never used, read or listened to, and you have direct debits coming out of your ears, and your email inbox is stuffed full of junk that you are constantly sent from all the online subscription lists you are signed up to that you cant even remember, you might be ready for the 4 tier annihilation method.
- If you have attended an online marketing seminar or bought a make money eBook and earned less than the price of the product, you might be ready for the 4 tier annihilation method.
- If you receive monthly checks from your online activity that have less than 5 figures on them, you might be ready for the 4 tier annihilation method.
- If your family and friends make fun of your online business, you might be ready for the 4 tier annihilation method.
- If your eyes burn at the end of each night, from countless frustrating hours staring at your computer screen trying to make some money, you might be ready for the 4 tier annihilation method.
- If you are subscribed to more that 5 Vampire Guru lists that constantly hammer you about the latest Holy Grail product offers, you might be ready for the 4 tier annihilation method.
- If you are sick to death and tired of spending more than you make on your online activities, and just want to chill out and have fun while your passive income just rolls in to your accounts in boatloads, you might be ready for the 4 tier annihilation method.

So are you ready for Life After Death? Good!

What you will read now will feel like a breath of fresh air. You will feel like you have been lifted out from the dungeons of blood sucking vampires to a higher sphere of freedom and bliss.

I am going to take you by the hand and show you step by step how to start your online business and make the easiest 6 and 7 figures a month that you have ever dreamed of.

Once you learn the system, you will forever have a massive stream of constant passive income that will not be affected by saturation or just die out one day and fall off the face of the earth.

You will not have the stress and strain of wondering where your next online check is going to come from, or whether you will make enough this month to cover all your bills, and whether you will get busted and your business will fall down the drain.

Finally this is not theory, I actually am doing this stuff everyday as are my private coaching students, and it works as well today or even better than it did a few years ago, and the great news is it will continue to grow year after year as the internet grows.

The golden path is now laid out for you. It's your choice to follow or let the wise ones grab the trail.

If this sounds right for you, let's dive straight in...
